Incidents:

- 1. September 2019: Haverford College investigated a possible hazing incident in potential violation of the College's hazing policy. The incident in question took place in September 2019 and involved members of the Men's Lacrosse Team. The College received an anonymous email, alleging that the team had planned unspecified events in which first-year team members were to perform certain duties for the team. The allegation made reference to a purported email sent to first-year team members by a team captain. The departments of Athletics and Campus Safety investigated the allegation and found it to be groundless in that no such event had occurred or was planned. The matter was resolved on September 23, 2019.
- 2. September 2019: Haverford College investigated a possible hazing incident in potential violation of the College's hazing policy. The incident in question took place in September 2019 and involved members of the Men's Baseball Team. The incident in question was brought to the attention of Haverford's Director of Athletics, alleging that the team had planned unspecified events in which first-year team members were to perform certain duties for the team during their annual first Drinker party. The department of Athletics and Campus Safety investigated the allegation and found it to be groundless in that no such event had occurred or was planned. The matter was resolved on September 23, 2019.
